THE BENNINGTON

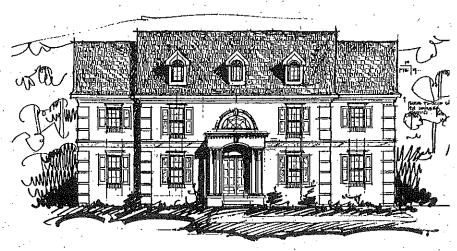

Elevation A

Like a page out of history, this Colonial Saltbox features perfect symmetry, shuttered windows, lap siding, dormers and a stone base.

Elevation C

This home is decidedly Georgian with its pure symmetry and hip roof. An impressive two-story portico has stately columns and a magnificent arched window with stone surround setting a grand tone.

Elevation B

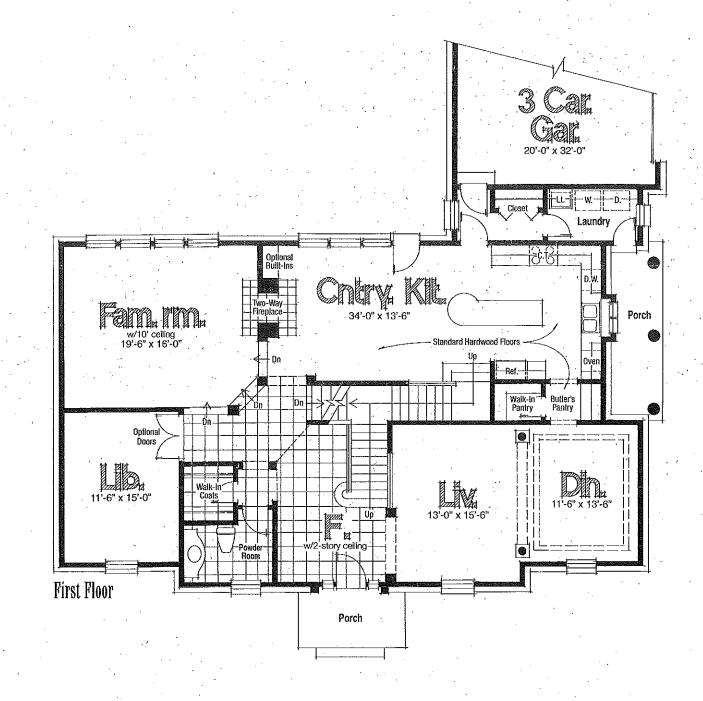

Neoclassical influence graces this home. A center porch with columns has a traditional pediment topped with a half-round tru-divided glass window. Quoin corners, shuttered windows and dormers provide refined finishing touches.

Perfect symmetry is created by a rear access garage which also provides courtyard privacy for the back yard. Three classic columns grace a covered side porch and give this home an elegant side elevation. Inside, the subtle geometries of an innovative T-shaped stairway and stately pillars in the two-story foyer create a sophisticated ambiance. The Bennington also showcases our largest kitchen, firelit from the two-way fireplace shared with the stepped-down family room. A butler's pantry provides convenient access to the formal dining room with its double stepped ceiling and graceful columned archway which leads to the formal living room.

Upstairs, the master suite pampers with a cathedral ceiling in the bedroom area, where the romantic warmth of a fireplace may be added. A studio ceiling enhances the elegant
