

THE DARTMOUTH

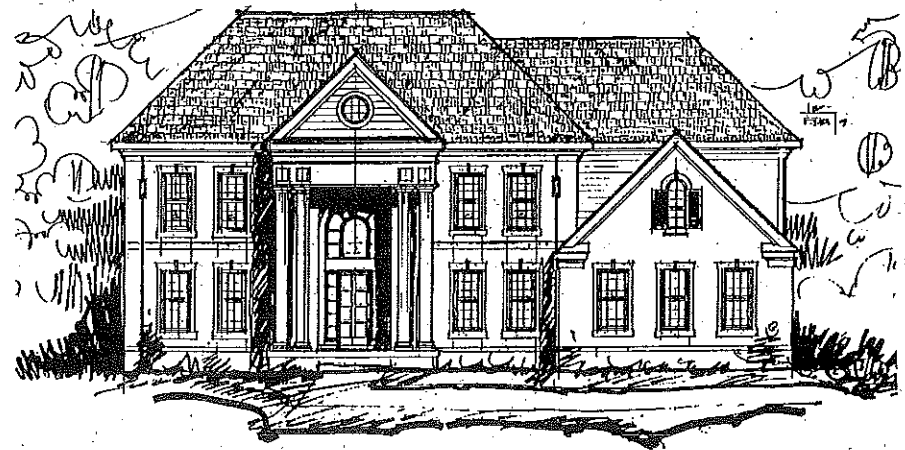

Elevation A

This stately Colonial features symmetrical gables flanking the home's front entry with leaded glass windows. Classic lap siding, shuttered windows and dentil molding complete the home's traditional appeal.

Elevation B

The exterior highlights of this Georgian home include a Palladian window over the front portico, multi-level gables and dentil molding. Leaded glass window accents add interesting variation.

Elevation C

A massive two-story portico with four classic columns dominates the facade of this Neoclassical elevation. The brick exterior is accented with stone detailing which surrounds the traditional multi-paned windows.

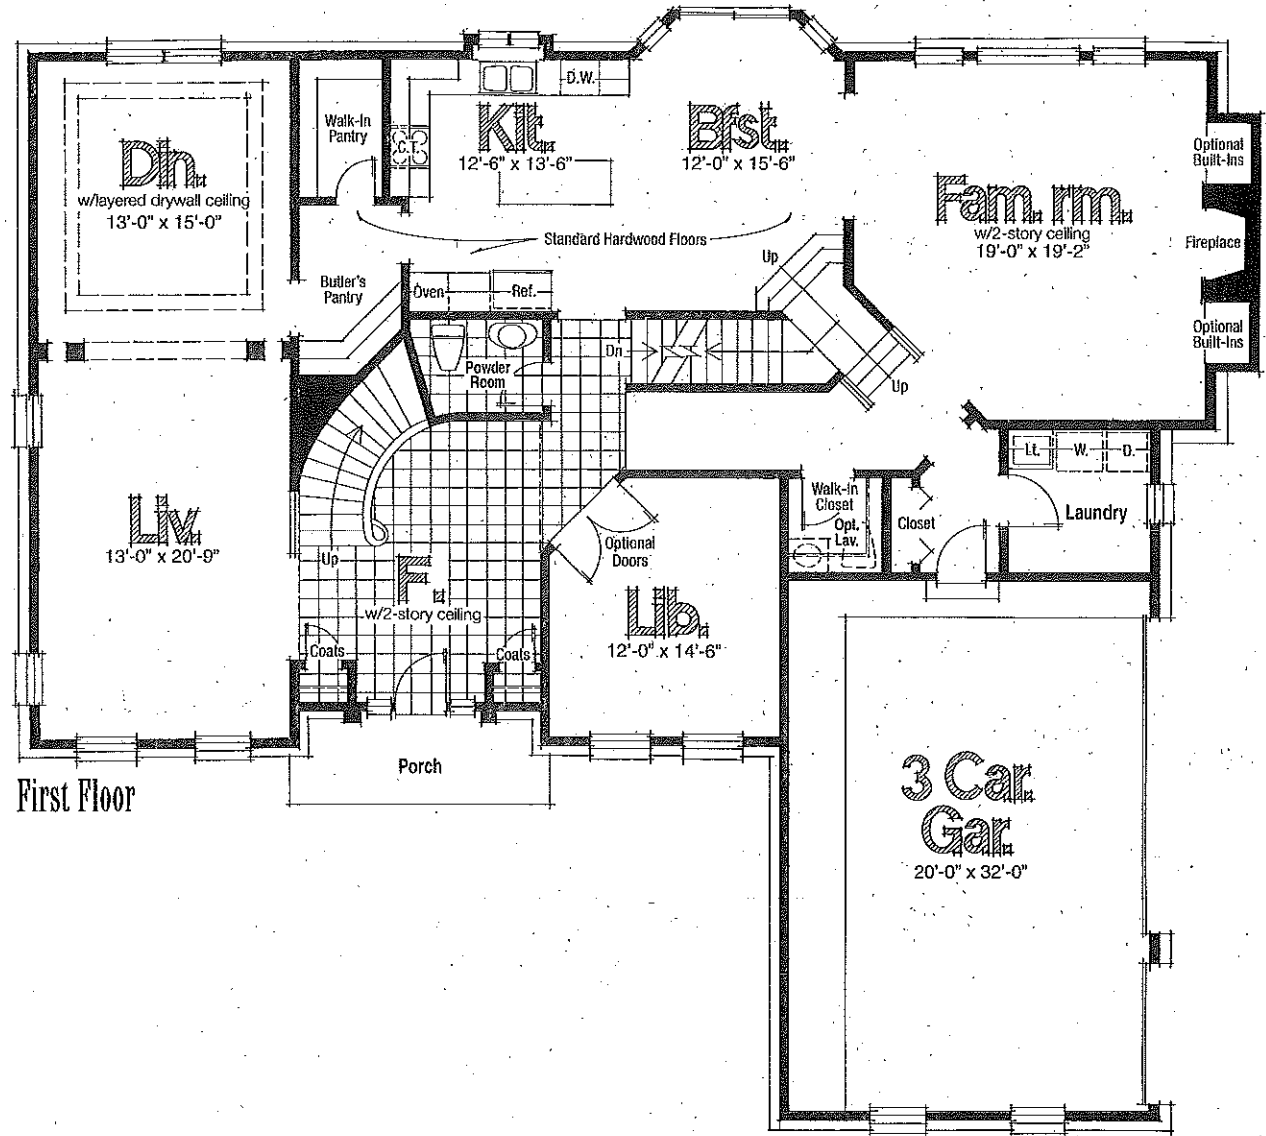

THE DARTMOUTH

Bedrooms: 4

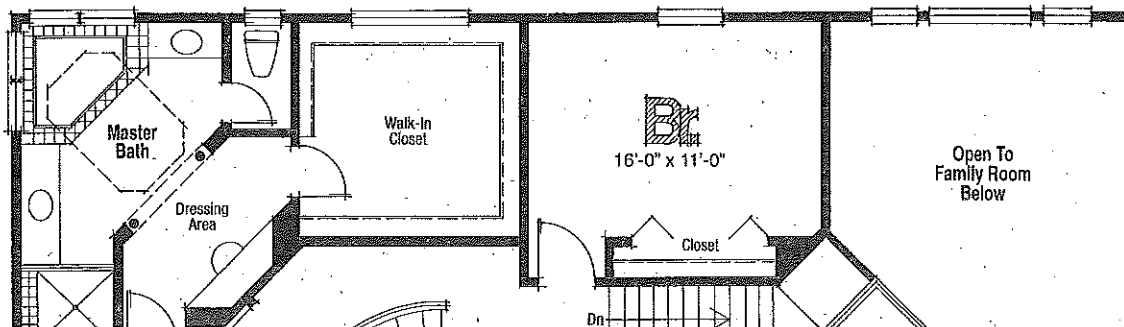

Baths: 2-3 Full, 1-2 Half

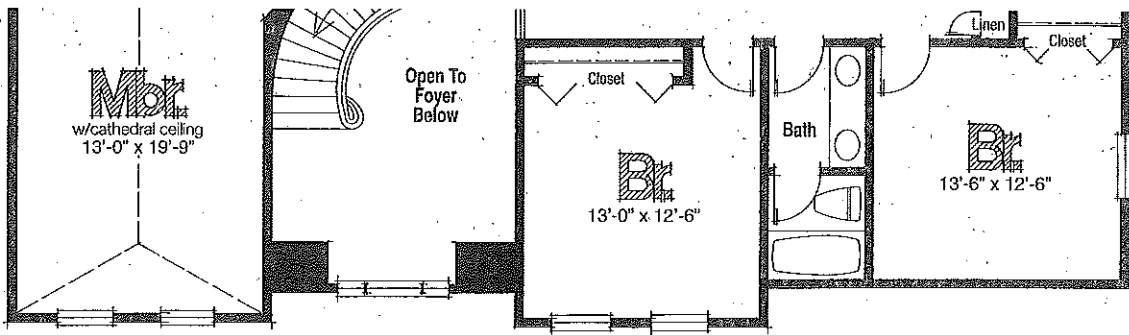

Square Footage: 3,720 - 3,836

A magnificent curving stairway presides over the elegant two-story foyer. Expansive family space lies in the rear of the home where sunshine spills through a bank of arched windows in the two-story family room and the bay windowed breakfast nook. Off the gourmet kitchen, an angled butler's pantry provides access to the formal dining room with its stepped ceiling and columns and the adjacent living room. Family convenience is enhanced by a second stairway and an optional second half bath near the laundry/mud room. <

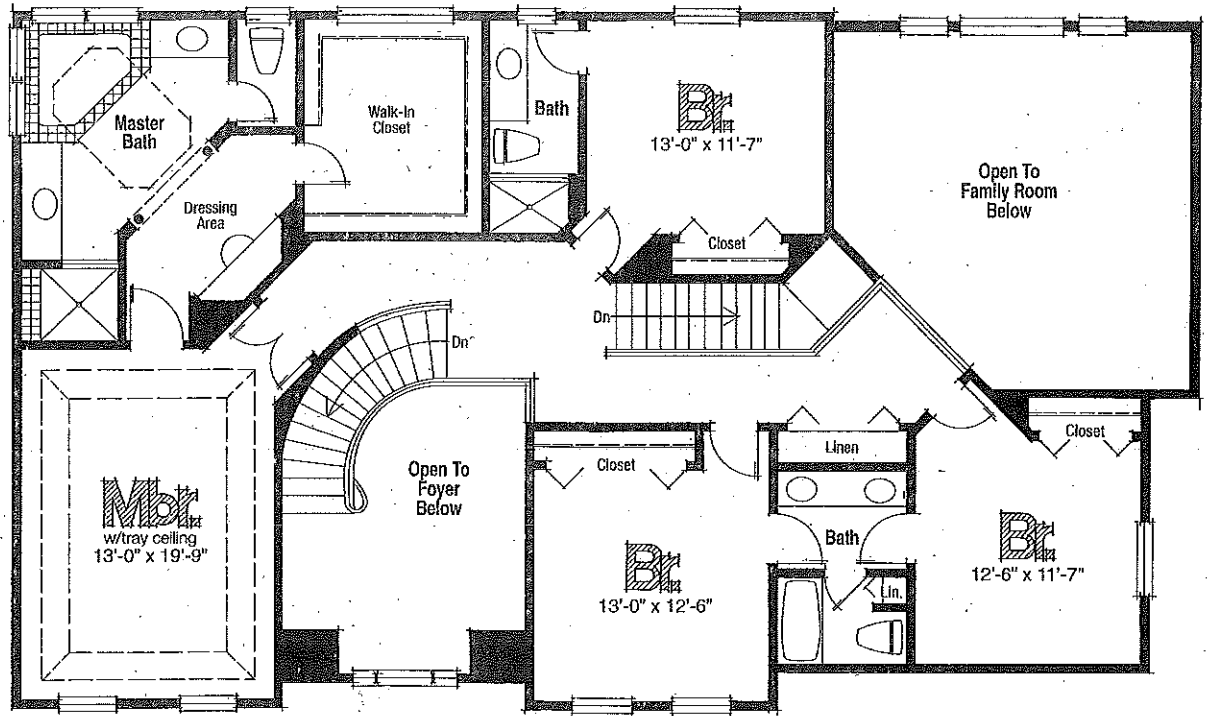

First Floor

Second Floor

A harmonious blend of beauty and comfort prevail in a very private master retreat. A cathedral ceiling complements the spacious bedroom. Elegant columns frame the entrance to the regal bath where a stepped ceiling rises over the angled whirlpool tub. The second floor also features an overlook into the family room and an optional third full bath.
