ARTICLE IV

MEMBERSHIP AND VOTING RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

Section 1. The Developer and Lot owners of the Subdivision shall be members of the Association. No other persons or entities shall be entitled to membership. The Developer may resign as a member of the Association upon written notice to the Association.

Section 2. The separate share of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, pledged or transferred in any manner, except automatically to a purchaser of a Lot in the Subdivision. In no event shall a member have a right to a distribution or return of any funds or assets of the Association, except with respect to overpayments made by the member of dues or assessments levied by the Association.

Section 3.

(a) There shall be three classes of membership in the Association. Class A membership shall be voting, and the Developer shall be the only Class A member. Class B membership shall be non-voting until the time specified in subparagraph (b) below. Except as provided below each owner of a Lot shall be a Class B member, and voting by the members of such Class shall be on a one vote per Lot basis (i.e., each Lot is entitled to one vote, irrespective of how many people own the Lot and hence are members of the Association). Class C membership in the Association shall be non-voting and shall consist of any member who does not occupy a dwelling at the time the Class B membership acquires voting rights (i.e., at the time specified below). A Class C member shall become a Class B member upon occupying a dwelling on a Lot.

(b) The only voting class of membership in the Association shall be Class A (i.e., the Developer shall have the sole vote in the Association and the consequent right to appoint the Board of Directors), until such time as all of the Lots have occupied dwellings on them or at such earlier time as is designated in writing by the Developer as the date Class B members shall have the right to vote in the Association. When all of the Lots in the Subdivision have occupied dwellings on them, or at such earlier time as the Developer may specify in writing as aforesaid, Class B members of the Association shall have the voting rights specified in the above paragraph. Thereafter, the Board of Directors of the Association shall be elected by the combined vote of Class A and Class B members; however, voting as to all other matters shall be by class, and for the Association to take any other action it will be necessary for both Class A and Class B (but not Class C) members to approve the same by the applicable majority or super-majority requirements established in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Association.

Section 4. If more than one person owns a Lot, collectively they shall be entitled to but one vote with respect to such Lot, and they shall upon request designate in the records of the Association the individual authorized to cast such vote.

Section 5. Votes may be cast in person, by proxy or by absentee ballot. Absentee ballots must be cast with respect to specific questions of which the notice required by these Bylaws is given prior to a particular meeting, and any such ballots must be filed with the secretary of the Association at or before the appointed time of such meeting.

Section 6. A majority shall consist of more than fifty percent (50%) of the votes of those members present in person or by proxy (or absentee ballot, if applicable) at a given meeting of the members of the Association. Whenever provided specifically herein or in the Articles of Incorporation, action by the members of the Association may be required to exceed the majority described in the preceding sentence; otherwise, the members shall act by the majority specified above.

If the day for the annual meeting of the members is a legal holiday, the meeting will be held at the same hour on the first day following which is not a legal holiday.

Section 2. Special Meeting -- Special meetings of the members may be called at any time by the President or by the Board of Directors, or upon written request of three (3) or more members.

Section 3. Regular Meetings -- In addition to the annual meetings, regular meetings of the members may be held at such times and places as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Notice of Meeting -- Written notice of each meeting of the members shall be given by, or at the direction of, the Secretary or person authorized to call the meeting, by mailing a copy of such notice, postage prepaid, at least ten (10) days before such meeting to each member entitled to vote thereat, addressed to the member's address appearing on the books of the Association, or supplied by such member to the Association for the purpose of notice. Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting, and in the case of a special meeting, the purpose of the meeting.

Section 5. Quorum -- The presence at the meeting of members entitled to cast, or of proxies entitled to cast, one-quarter (1/4) of the eligible votes of the total membership in each Class entitled to vote at the meeting shall constitute a quorum for any action except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration or these Bylaws. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting, the members entitled to vote thereat shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum as aforesaid shall be present or be represented.

ARTICLE VI

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number -- The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors of not less than three (3) members and not more than five (5) members; provided, the Board of Directors may contain between one (1) and five (5) members at anytime until Class B members become eligible to vote pursuant to Section 3(b) of Article IV above. At the first annual meeting held after Class B members become eligible to vote pursuant to Section 3(b) of Article IV above, the Board of Directors shall be elected by a combined vote of the Class A and Class B members. Prior to such time the Board of Directors shall be elected by the Class A member.

Section 2. Term of Office -- The first Board of Directors shall serve for a term of three (3) years or such other shorter term as may be determined by the Class A member. Thereafter, the members of the Board of Directors shall serve for a term of two (2) years, unless earlier removed as provided below.

Section 3. Removal -- Any director may be removed from the Board, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the member(s) of the Association who were eligible to vote for the directors at the meeting at which the director was elected.

Section 4. Vacancies -- In the event of death, resignation or removal of a director, his or her successor shall be selected by the remaining members of the Board and shall serve for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor; provided, if there are no remaining members of the Board the successor shall be chosen by a majority vote of the member(s) of the Association who were eligible to vote for the directors at the meeting at which the director was elected. Any successor director so selected or elected shall hold office until the next election of directors.

Section 5. Compensation -- No director shall receive compensation for any service he or she may render to the Association. However, any director may be reimbursed for his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties.

Section 6. Action Taken Without a Meeting -- The directors shall have the right to take any action in the absence of a meeting which they could have taken at a meeting, by obtaining the written approval of all of the directors. Any action so approved shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the directors.

ARTICLE VII

NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Nomination -- Nomination for election to the Board of Directors shall be made at the annual meeting by the Developer or by members of the Association eligible to vote.

Section 2. Requirements -- To be nominated for the position of director by a member of the Association other than the Developer, the nominee must be a Lot owner who is a member in good standing of the Association. The Developer may nominate one or more persons for the position of Director who are not Lot owners or members of the Association.

Section 3. Election -- Election to the Board of Directors by the Class B members shall be by secret written ballot. Election to the Board of Directors by the Class A member may be by secret written ballot or other means specified by such member. At any election at which Class B members are entitled to vote, the members or their proxies may cast one in respect to each vacancy. The persons receiving the largest number of votes for each vacancy shall be elected. Cumulative voting is not permitted.

ARTICLE IX

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers -- Subject always to the terms and conditions of the Declaration and the Declarant's or the Developer's rights and powers thereunder, the Board of Directors shall have power to:

- (a) Adopt and publish rules and regulations governing the common areas and amenities which are contemplated to be maintained by the Association, including those referred to in Article V of the Declaration (provided the same are approved by the Developer, are consistent with the Association's obligations in respect of the PUD Agreement and are authorized under the maintenance agreement or like agreements referred to in the Declaration or the Articles of Incorporation), and the personal conduct of the members and their guests thereon, and to establish penalties for the infraction thereof;
- (b) Suspend the voting rights of, and limit the use of the common areas and amenities by, a member during any period in which such member shall be in default for more than thirty (30) days in the payment of any assessment levied by the Association;
- (c) Exercise for the Association all powers, duties and authority vested in or delegated to the Association and not specifically reserved to the membership by other provisions of these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation or the Declaration;
- (d) Declare the office of a member of the Board of Directors to be vacant in the event such member shall be absent from three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Board of Directors;
- (e) Employ a manager, independent contractors, professionals and such other employees, agents or consultants as the Board deems necessary to accomplish the purposes or duties of the Association, and to prescribe their duties and compensation; and
- (f) Negotiate and approve the maintenance agreement or like agreements contemplated in the Declaration.

Section 2. Duties -- The Board of Directors shall use good faith efforts to cause the Association to:

- (a) Cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs, as well as a record of current Lot owners, and to present a statement thereof to the members at the annual meeting of the members, or at a duly called special meeting when such statement is requested;
- (b) Supervise all officers, agents and employees of this Association, and see that their duties are properly performed;
- (c) As more fully provided in the Declaration:

(1) Assess and collect dues, fees or other charges to every Lot owner, except as provided below or in the Declaration (as the same may be amended, including amendments limiting the liability of specific Lot owners for fees, dues or charges). The dues, fees or other charges shall be in amounts reasonably sufficient to permit the Association to discharge its responsibilities, liabilities or prerogatives as provided in this Article and the Articles of Incorporation. It is contemplated that such dues, fees or charges generally shall be levied on a monthly basis, although the Association may levy special assessments to fund extraordinary expenses or to make up for shortfalls in the monthly dues, fees or other charges, when the same become apparent. If any required payment of dues, fees or other charges is not paid within thirty (30) days after the date the same is due, a late charge equal to eight (8%) percent of the payment so overdue shall be assessed. In addition, the Lot owner shall be assessed interest on overdue payments. Such interest shall accrue at seven (7%) percent from the date the payment is due but shall be waived if payment is received within thirty (30) days of the date due. All dues, fees, charges, late charges and accrued interest shall constitute a lien on any Lot(s) owned by any person responsible for the payment of the same, and the Developer or the Association, as the case may be, may enforce the lien by recording appropriate instruments confirming the existence of the lien and/or by foreclosing the lien by appropriate legal action. A Lot owner promptly shall reimburse the Developer and the Association for any costs incurred by either of them (i) in collecting or attempting to collect delinquent dues, fees, charges, late charges or accrued interest, (ii) in preparing or recording an appropriate instrument to confirm the existence of the lien, or (iii) in enforcing or attempting to enforce any lien for delinquent dues, fees, charges, late charges or accrued interest, including without limitation attorneys fees and other litigation costs. Such right of reimbursement shall be in addition to and not in limitation of any other rights or remedies available to the Developer or the Association hereunder or otherwise. In such legal action a court of competent jurisdiction shall be empowered to order a sale of any Lot(s) subject to the lien in order to satisfy the lien. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the lien shall be subordinate and junior to the lien of any first mortgage securing a loan for the acquisition or improvement of any Lot.

(2) Except as provided in the Declaration (as the same may be amended, including amendments limiting the liability of specific Lot owners for fees, dues or charges) or otherwise specified in writing by the Developer, charge and assess the same dues to each Lot, irrespective of the size of the Lot, and whether or not the Lot owner resides in the Subdivision or has constructed a dwelling on his or her Lot. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at such time as two-thirds (2/3rds) of the aggregate number of Lots in the Subdivision have been sold by the Declarant or the Developer, no dues, fees or other charges shall be payable to the Association with respect to any Lots owned by the Declarant or the Developer. Instead, the financial needs of the Association shall be met by the dues, fees or other charges assessed on the remaining Lots, although at such time as the Declarant or the Developer sells or otherwise transfers a Lot to an unrelated third party, the Association shall levy fees with respect to such Lot;

(d) Send written notice of the assessment of dues, fees or other charges to every member subject thereto;

(e) Collect all assessments and enforce and foreclose the lien against any Lot owned by a Lot owner who is not paying his or her assessments, or bring an action at law against the Lot Owner obligated to pay the same;

(f) To the extent the same is not provided for in the maintenance agreement or similar agreement, to have contractors repair, maintain and replace the common areas and amenities of the Subdivision;

(g) Issue, or to cause an appropriate officer to issue, upon demand by any person, a certificate setting forth whether or not any assessment has been paid. A reasonable charge may be made by the Board for the issuance of any such certificates. If a certificate states an assessment has been paid, such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of such payment;

(h) Procure and maintain liability insurance with respect to the common areas and amenities of the Subdivision in such amounts as the Board of Directors determines to be appropriate, but in no event less than five million ($5,000,000) dollars per occurrence, and to procure and maintain adequate liability and hazard insurance on all other property owned by the Association or with respect to other Association matters. The Developer and the Declarant shall be named insureds under all such liability insurance coverages;

(i) Cause all officers or employees to be bonded, as the Board may deem appropriate;

(j) Perform such other acts or accomplish such other purposes as may be reasonably necessary to improve the appearance, atmosphere or pleasantness of the Subdivision as a first-class luxury single-family subdivision; and

(k) To exercise for the Association all powers, duties and authority vested in or delegated to the Association.

ARTICLE XIV

INDEMNITY

The enumeration of the powers and duties of the Board of Directors and the officers as set forth in Article IX and Article X above are intended to set forth the authority of such persons to act, and are not intended to create contractual or other obligations on the part of such persons to actually accomplish the purposes and the duties set forth above. In no event shall a director or officer of the Association have liability for any personal injury, death or property damage arising out of the actual or claimed breach of any power or duty specified above, except to the extent such person is finally judged to have been grossly negligent or to have acted in bad faith in the performance of his or her duties, and then only to the extent permitted by the Articles of Incorporation. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Association shall indemnify each person made or threatened to be made a party to any civil action or proceeding by reason of the fact he or she, or his or her testator or intestate, is or was a director, officer or managerial employee of the Association if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Association or its members and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if the person had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful. However, if the action is by or in the right of the Association, indemnification shall not be made for a claim, issue or matter in which the person has been found liable to the Association unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought has determined in view of all the circumstances that the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for expenses which the court considers proper.
